Tylney Hall

There are many words which describe festivities at Tylney Hall, but three totally encapsulate the experience – traditional (in its comfort, character and service), tranquil (its setting in the rich rolling countryside commanding the longest uninterrupted view of Hampshire) and luxurious (for its decor, accommodation and Spa facilities). As you approach the hotel along its redwood-lined vista and seeing just a glimpse of the 66 acres of historic gardens, woodlands and lakes you have a taste of what is awaiting you. Our festive programme should meet every expectation, for all ages.

Christmas is such a very special time for children and we make sure we cater for everything they expect from a welcome pack, a visit from Father Christmas, a games room, tickets for a pantomime and so much more.

Join us and let us spoil you in style!

Christmas

The festive period is the perfect time to celebrate in a style that only Tylney Hall can provide with its history, architecture, lavish interior, charm and character all creating an atmosphere of unshamed luxury enjoyed by the whole family.

From the welcome afternoon tea on arrival to the black tie dinner and dancing on the last evening, guests enjoy a journey of extravagance and relaxation at Tylney Hall, where traditional values of hospitality and service are complemented by attentive and friendly service.

See pages 4-5 for details.

Interlude

Christmas and New Year are often the perfect time for a short break and our special interlude breaks are ideal. This year take the time to get away during the lead up to Christmas allowing you chance to breathe before the festivities begin, relax during that piece of calm between Christmas and New Year or indeed enjoy a well deserved break after the New Year Celebrations!

Our special interlude breaks are available either side of Christmas (19th–23rd December and 27th–30th December) and New Year (from 1st–8th January). Available from just £77.50 per person for bed and breakfast and from £110.00 per person for dinner, bed and breakfast, both based on two sharing.

See page 7 for details and tariff.

New Year

Spending the New Year at Tylney Hall is a wonderful way to celebrate the arrival of 2012.

Our Gourmet Dinner and Dance in the Oak Room Restaurant and Tylney Suite is a very special 'black tie' event and is the perfect way to start the year by celebrating in style.

See pages 6 for details.

Non-residential packages are also available. Please telephone for details.

THREE OR FOUR DAY HOUSE PARTY

Spending the Festive Holiday at Tylney Hall is a celebration experience where respect for tradition is as important as warm and friendly service. We look forward to welcoming you to Tylney Hall for an occasion of true indulgence.

FRIDAY 23RD DECEMBER 2011

Arrive at your leisure and check into your luxurious accommodation. Take the opportunity to explore the hotel and grounds and even check out the impressive Spa.

Afternoon Tea will be served in the lounges providing the perfect opportunity to wrap last minute presents by the roaring log fires.

In the evening, dine in the award winning Oak Room Restaurant and enjoy the mellow tunes of our resident pianist.

SATURDAY 24TH DECEMBER 2011

After a delicious breakfast, take advantage of our luxury coach transportation to Reading for some last minute Christmas shopping or for the matinée performance of 'Aladdin' at The Hexagon Theatre commencing at 1.00pm. To make sure children are not disappointed, tickets should be reserved prior to your arrival – a supplement applies.

Luncheon is served in the Oak Room Restaurant or, if you prefer, a light lunch can be taken in one of the lounges. During the afternoon, you can simply relax by a welcoming fire or pamper yourself with a range of beauty treatments in our Spa. (Booking early is recommended to avoid disappointment – supplement charges apply).

In the evening, Mark Ashton and his Management Team invite you to Champagne Cocktails and Canapés in the lounges while the local choir fills the front hall with traditional festive music and song.

Dinner in the Oak Room Restaurant is a relaxed affair with music from our resident pianist. Guests are then invited to join us at traditional Midnight Mass at Heckfield Parish Church. On your return, mulled wine and mince pies will be served.

THREE OR FOUR DAY HOUSE PARTY

CHRISTMAS DAY – SUNDAY 25TH DECEMBER 2011

A Very Merry Christmas!

Start Christmas Day with a relaxed breakfast followed by coffee and mulled wine in the Drawing Room where Father Christmas will have presents for all.

Later on in the morning, guests and staff come together to sing traditional Carols around the Christmas tree.

Do join us for an apéritif in the Library before enjoying the Gala Christmas Buffet Luncheon in the Tylney Suite to the accompaniment of our resident pianist.

After lunch guests are able to spend the afternoon strolling through the grounds, with two dedicated Children's trails to help little ones explore the 66 acres.

Alternatively, friends and families are able to get together with a choice of board games. Tea and Christmas Cake will be available throughout the afternoon in the lounges with a public showing of the Queen's Speech in a private suite.

To commence this special evening's entertainment, you are invited to a Champagne and Canapés reception prior to a traditional Christmas dinner in the Oak Room Restaurant.

BOXING DAY – MONDAY 26TH DECEMBER 2011

Boxing Day is traditionally a day for relaxation or maybe sport. Our impressive Spa offers a wide range of facilities for a rejuvenating morning (booking early is recommended to avoid disappointment – supplement charges apply). Try your hand at Archery, Crossbow and Laser Clay Pigeon Shooting with prizes for the most skilful. Mulled wine will be available for both participants and spectators.

Apéritifs will be available before an informal buffet luncheon in the Tylney Suite.

During the afternoon, explore some of the local countryside with our self-guided walks or enjoy the hotel's extensive leisure facilities. Afternoon tea with muffins will be served in the sumptuous lounges.

Boxing Day evening starts with Champagne and Canapés accompanied by our resident Harpist. A five course 'Black Tie' Gala Dinner follows with the evening rounded off with dancing into the early hours in the Tylney Suite. During the evening's entertainment, prizes for the morning's activities will be awarded.
